

Mississippi SACAC Drive-In Workshop

Proposed AGENDA

“Sailing the seas to students’ success”

Hosted by: University of Southern Mississippi & SACAC

Friday, January 26, 2018

8:45-9:00 a.m.	Set Sail: Networking with Colleagues and Registration
9:00-9:15 a.m.	Welcome Aboard: Opening Remarks by the Captain Kate Howard, Assistant Vice President & Dean of Admissions
9:15-10:00 a.m.	Anchors Away: Utilizing tools for Student Success Deflated budget and increasing tasks? This session will highlight helpful tips and ideas on utilizing available resources Dr. Juawice McCormick, Coordinator of M.Ed. School Counseling, The University of Southern Mississippi
10:00-11:00 a.m.	Man Overboard: Coping with Bullying on your Vessel With an increase in social media access, students often find themselves as victims, observers, and perpetrators of cyber bullying. This session will focus on ways to identify and counsel through bullying issues at your school. April Estill, Student Counseling Services, The University of Southern Mississippi
11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.	Full STEM Ahead: The Need for Tech Careers in the Future (Lunch) Many of the jobs that your students will fill, don’t even exist yet. This session focusses on how our universities are preparing students for ever evolving world of technology. Dr. Sabine Heinhorst, Associate Dean for Undergraduate Research and Outreach, The University of Southern Mississippi
12:00-1:00 p.m.	Nautical Assistance: Updates on State Financial Aid This session will focus on updates of policies and resources available through the State Financial Aid Office. Jennifer Rogers, Director of the Mississippi Office of Student Financial Aid

1:00-2:00 p.m.	Cleaning the Deck: Update on Project Access/Signing Days/ Awards Days Organizing college and university visits and programming can be difficult. This session will highlight some of the new initiatives that can help make this process seamless for you. Erron Flowers, Director of Admissions, The University of Southern Mississippi
2:00-2:15 p.m.	Bon Voyage: Evaluation and Wrap-Up